JACOB TAKES STAB AT “WEREWOLF” PIC

Screenwriter Robert Nelson Jacobs has come aboard to rewrite Marvel Studios’ “Werewolf by Night” for Miramax films’ genre division Dimension Films and Crystal Sky. “Werewolf”, first printed by Marvel Comics in 1972, tells the story of a young man cursed to transform into a howling wolf like beast whenever the moon is full.

“Werewolf” will be produced by Marvel Studios and its CEO, Avi Arad, in coordination with Stephen Paul and Crystal Sky Llc. Arad will serve as executive producer. Jacob is repped by the Gersh Agency. Senior vp business and legal affairs Andrew Gumpert negotiated the deal from Dimension.
